Rhombus International Hotels Group's Founder & CEO is invited by the 'Hawaii US-Hong Kong Forum 2010' as a Guest Speaker

(Hong Kong, September 1, 2010) – Mr. Calvin Mak, Founder & CEO of Rhombus International Hotels Group was invited as a Guest Speaker at the 'Hawaii US-Hong Kong Forum 2010' held in Honolulu, Hawaii. Mr. Mak was asked to speak about the 'Changing Global Dynamics: New China Opportunities', where he shared his insight and knowledge on 'The Arrival of China as a Tourism Powerhouse in the Pacific Region'.

Congregating in beautiful Honolulu, the 'Hawaii US-Hong Kong Forum 2010' brought together business and government leaders from Hong Kong, China, Hawaii, various parts of the U.S., Canada and Asia to consider mutual business interests pertaining to the China's exponential economic growth. Of particular interest and highlight during the Forum was the growth of the tourism industry in China, both inbound and outbound.

Mr. Mak's experience in relation to Rhombus' growth and development in Hong Kong and China was popular with attendees seeking feedback and advice on 'what to expect' when an organisation enters the Mainland China marketplace using Hong Kong as a base. His participation in this Forum accentuates his involvement in the international marketplace as a conscientious hospitality industry leader committed to mentorship, training and sustainability.
